82% of employers say employees want the opportunity to volunteer with peers in a corporate-supported event.

Building an environment that is fulfilling, meaningful, and fun is not only good for employees, but can also potentially result in better business outcomes including higher productivity, increased efficiency, higher levels of customer satisfaction, and better overall business results. – Deloitte

UNITED WAY VISION COUNCILS

United Way of Central Illinois is always seeking knowledgeable volunteers to serve on Vision Councils in the areas of Basic Needs, Education, Financial Stability and Health.

Vision Councils are separate teams of 8-13 community volunteers with knowledge/experience in a specific area and help:

- ★ work with partners to solve crucial problems in the community;
- ★ invest United Way dollars in programs with measurable results and outcomes;
- ★ create documents necessary for an annual grant process; and
- ★ develop and continuously review UWCIL investments
